

Valeria Medina Zuniga interviewing Terry Joyner clip 1
Topic: Dr. James Newton

Interviewer: And what about the dynamic between the Black faculty?

Terry Joyner: Uhm in some classes they were actually harder on us than a white professor would be um because they knew that they had to push us in order for us to be our best. And Dr. Newton would tell somebody in a minute, "If I don't get this paper tomorrow, no need coming back to class." So, you know and people would just you know and it was just it was it was a nurturing kind of thing that prepared us for the real world, yeah.
